

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Sunrise, 5:11; sunset, 6:30.

Cold weather may delay opening of lake traffic until May. 1.

Saloons on N. Clark st., from Chicago av. to river, dropped free lunch.

Twenty-one persons sued Peoples Gas Light & Coke Co., charging poor gas.

Walter Perkins, 16, 2639 16th, died from burns received playing near a bonfire.

Mrs. Frieda Erickson, 2162 Warner av., said David pointed gun at her. Divorce.

Walter Griffith, bellboy Virginia hotel, sought for stabbing of John Davidson, porter.

Theo. and Hyppolite Appell, 1605 Milwaukee av., arrested for anarchistic utterances.

A. A. Morris, 3837 N. Keeler av., stock salesman, missing. Friends fear he has lost memory.

Late David N. Hanson, woolen goods dealer, left $1,500,000 estate to widow and two children.

Burta Lewis, 11, and Roy Wagner, 16, missing since Wednesday, found. Won't tell where they were.

City Prosecutor Miller's report shows 129,000 cases handled in 1916. Wants crime prevention bureau.

John Busch, rag dealer, 1241 Lake, shot and killed during fight with brother, Joseph. Latter arrested.

Herman Lewis, 7353 Vincennes av., suicide. Leaped into river from Adams street bridge. Body recovered.

Jacob Cohen, ladies' tailor, wants divorce from Beckie. Charges infidelity. Named Nathan Unlass, N. Y.

Chas. Johnson, negro paroled convict, arrested on charge of robbing home of E. J. Burns, 4344 Prairie av.

Plan to enlarge United Societies to state organization will be discussed May 27 in American hall, 18th and Loomis.

Louis Opizzi, 3022 Christiana av., chauffeur, probably fatally hurt when auto truck was jammed between two street cars.

Mrs. Margaret Sanger coming here to lecture on birth control.

Lincoln Bartlett, ladies' tailor, denied charges of cruelty made by wife in divorce trial.

Ethel Engstrom, employed in home of Frank D. Pearce, 3627 Grand blvd., and valuable jewels disappeared simultaneously.

Mrs. Mary Leader Zenner, 2322 S. State, wants freedom from Geo. Zenner. Says he married her while she was intoxicated.

Wilmette citizens protested against granting of 20 years' franchise right to Chicago, North Shore & Milwaukee electric road.

Corp. Counsel Ettelson upheld Mrs. Louise Osborne Rowe in argument with Health Com'r Robertson over discharge of 7 employees.

Twenty-five motorists arrested for violating new ordinance that requires vehicles to stop before crossing boulevards. Discharged.

Robert C. Gehrke, named as co-respondent by Fred'k Bray in divorce suit against Elizabeth Bray, will be given chance during trial to clear his name.

Frank W. Pace, arrested on Jan. 16 and sentenced to two years in Missouri prison for alleged robbery, sued for divorce by Mrs. Pearl Pace. Cruelty charged.

Mrs. Arthur Frazier, 6226 Broadway, and two children, Emanuel, 8, and Dorothy, 11, burned by explosion when boy tried to burn fulminate of mercury found in street.

WILL WARBLE FOR CHICAGO TEACHERS' FEDERATION.

Francis MacLennan and Madame Florence Easton, a couple of the best songbirds of the Chicago Opera ass'n, are going to warble tonight at the Auditorium in a program under auspices of the Chicago Teachers' Federation. Proceeds go to federation's fight to establish the merit system in the public schools.